Centerville Art Gallery features MB Hopkins in December, Reception December 9

The Centerville Arts Commission is pleased to host a painting exhibit by MB Hopkins in the Art Gallery at the Centerville Police Department for December. The Police Headquarters are located at 155 W. Spring Valley Road in Centerville. The Centerville Arts Commission will host a reception on Friday, December 9, 2016 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Art Gallery to introduce the collection to the community. The artist will be present to meet the public, and light refreshments will be served. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night.

MB Hopkins retired in 2010 after 30 years of service at the Dayton Daily News, where she was an artist and illustrator in the art department. She graduated with honors from Wright State University in 1983, where she received a BFA, and attended on fellowship the Yale University Summer School of Art. Hopkins has received numerous honors for her newspaper illustration and design, and has exhibited her work extensively in Ohio. After living in New York for three years, Hopkins recently returned to Dayton in 2015, where she has always considered Dayton's thriving arts community influential in her development as an artist.

The Centerville Arts Commission was created by Centerville City Council to involve the citizens of the Centerville area in the visual and performing arts.
